B. NON-MONETARY CLAIMS - OTHER ORDERS

(For example, requests for a party to do or stop doing something)

If you would like the tribunal to order a party to do or stop doing something, include it below. Do not add anything that was not requested in the Dispute Notice. Explain what you would like the tribunal to order, and why you would like the order. Examples might include: “an order that the strata repair my door” or “an order that the owner of strata lot x stop using my parking spot”.

Please note the CRT will not generally order parties to apologize, make donations, or stop serving on strata councils.

REQUESTS FOR A PARTY TO DO OR STOP DOING SOMETHING

Party name: CONSUELO SAVILLE	What would like them to do or stop doing? An order for the Owner of a strata lot#19, to immediately pay all monies requested to Eagle Point Strata and if the Owner fails to do so an order which allows the Strata to proceed with a forced sale.
Why: The Strata has attempted for sometime to have this Owner fully pay up their account. Strata placed a lien on their property on October, 2018. Further notices of possible legal action were dated October 15, 2019 and October 28, 2020. Only partial payment was remitted on Nov.19, 2020. Strata needs to ensure, on behalf of all owners, that all monies owed are paid in full.
Party name: -----	What would like them to do or stop doing? -----
Why: CRT: Claim for non-monetary order about sale of strata lot - refused to resolve due to lack of jurisdiction. See Civil Resolution Tribunal Act sections 10(1) and 122(1)(f).
Party name: -----	What would like them to do or stop doing? -----
Why: -----

C. CRT FEES AND DISPUTE-RELATED EXPENSES

You can claim CRT filing fees and reasonable expenses you paid to prepare for the CRT dispute resolution process. Generally, the CRT will not order the reimbursement of fees paid to a lawyer or other representative. If you are claiming more than $50, please submit your receipts to the tribunal by email, along with this form. For expense claims for $50 or less, retain your receipts in case the CRT requests them later.

CRT Fees and Expenses Description	Expense Amount ($)	CRT USE ONLY Order ($)

d. CRT Application and other CRT fees		$150.00
Total fees and dispute-related expenses		$150.00

D. INTEREST

Please enter the interest rate that applies to your claim. Note that interest applies only to monetary orders (debt and non-debt) and doesn't apply to non-monetary awards. The interest rate must be specified in your contract or strata bylaws and claimed in your Dispute notice (do not submit your contract.). If it is not, please refer to the Court Order Interest Act to identify the applicable interest rate. The CRT will calculate interest from the date of the Dispute Notice to the date of the Default Order. For more information on Court Order Interest please see:

http://www.courts.gov.bc.ca/supreme_court/about_the_supreme_court/Court_Order_Interest_Rates.aspx

NOTE: If you don't calculate your interest claim correctly, or tick the box below to waive your claim, the CRT will return your form. There will be a delay in getting your default decision and order from the CRT.

CRT Default Decision and Order

The applicant(s) applied for strata property dispute resolution with the Civil Resolution Tribunal (CRT) and requested a default decision and order of the CRT. The following is the CRT's default Decision and Order.

CRT DECISION

Proof of Notice:

1. A respondent must respond to a Dispute Notice within 14 days of receiving the Dispute Notice, as indicated on the Dispute Response Form or as permitted by the CRT.
2. Having reviewed the evidence, I am satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the respondent(s) received the Dispute Notice and did not respond to it by the deadline set out in the CRT's rules. This means the respondent(s) are in default, as defined in section 1(1)(a) of the Civil Resolution Tribunal Act (CRTA).

Jurisdiction:

3. The CRT's strata property jurisdiction is set out in section 121 of the CRTA. The applicable CRT rules are those in place at the time the Dispute Notice was issued.
4. In a default decision such as this one, the CRT will make a binding decision without the participation of the respondent(s). The CRT will send the parties a copy of the final decision and order.
5. Under the CRTA and the CRT's rules, in resolving this dispute the CRT may order a party to do or stop doing something, pay money or make an order that includes any terms or conditions the CRT considers appropriate.

Decision:

6. Liability is assumed in default decisions. Since the respondent is in default, I find in favour of the applicant.
7. In accordance with the CRTA and the CRT's rules, I find the respondent(s) must pay the applicant(s) the monetary amounts as set out in the preceding pages. This amount is payable immediately.
8. I find the applicant(s) is entitled to any applicable post-judgment interest, which is not included as part of the "total order" amount.

CRT ORDER

9. In accordance with the CRTA and the CRT's rules, I order the respondent(s) to immediately pay the applicant(s) the monetary orders set out in the preceding pages. The applicant(s) is also entitled to post-judgment interest under the Court Order Interest Act, as applicable.
10. Under section 57 of the CRTA, a validated copy of the CRT's order can be enforced through the British Columbia Supreme Court. Under section 58 of the CRTA, the order can be enforced through the British Columbia Provincial Court if it is an order for financial compensation or return of personal property under $35,000. Once filed, a CRT order has the same force and effect as an order of the court that it is filed in.
